

Certificate of completion

This certificate certifies that Thiru Voonna has completed Graduating All Students Innovation-Ready, a 45 minutes webinar on November 8, 2022

Organized By

Digital Promise and Verizon Innovative Learning

Webinar description

In a world where knowledge has become a free commodity, only one set of skills will guarantee our students and our country a prosperous future: the capacity to solve problems creatively – in a word, to innovate. Author of The Global Achievement Gap and Creating Innovators, Tony Wagner, will talk about what we must do to prepare young people to bring innovation skills to whatever they do.
